

THE ARTS

In term 2 with Miss Abby we will continue focusing on drama, below is a description on what each year level will be learning.

Reception, Year 1 & Year 2	Students will explore role and dramatic action in dramatic play improvisation and process drama. Students will be creating characters and roles for these characters and their ideas will be expressed through role and story.
Year 3 & Year 4	Students will analyse the story of Pinocchio and identify characters, themes and ideas. Students will work collaboratively in a creative team to establish and create a story to engage an audience. Coupled with this, students will design, sketch and create props and masks to enhance their performance to an audience.
Year 5 & Year 6	Students will explore scenes, characters and mood of the story of Pinocchio. They will analyse a scene in the script and develop ideas for theatre. Students will be working collaboratively in a creative team and present and perform the story to engage an audience.
